Small Business Recognition Program Honors First Recipient

Every month Supervisor Gary C. Ovitt will be accepting nominations of small businesses that are successfully working to improve our local economy and are making a difference in the community.

The initial winner for the month of January is Rosa Rangel, owner of Montclair Florist. The business has operated continuously close to twenty years serving the needs of the community.

Rosa is being honored for her commitment and contributions to her community. She has served for many years as a Montclair Chamber of Commerce Board Member and for the past two years as Chairperson, a position requiring long hours and selfless devotion to the local small business community while simultaneously running her own business.

"Rosa has demonstrated the true values of entrepreneurship and leadership," said Supervisor Ovitt. "We will honor her today at 4:30 at her place of business, Montclair Florist, located at 9507-A, Montclair."

Supervisor Ovitt added, "From the businesses that are chosen for business of the month, one will be recognized as the Fourth District's "Small Business of the Year."

"Small businesses are vital to the economy of San Bernardino County," said Supervisor Ovitt. "Owners of small businesses should be commended and recognized for their hard work and entrepreneurial spirit, especially now when the economy makes things difficult for them."

Nominated businesses need to be located within the Cities of Chino, Chino Hills, Montclair, or Ontario. Small businesses can be nominated by emailing: SupervisorOvitt@sbcounty.gov or contact my district office at (909) 465-1895. Please include the name of the business, business owner's name, address, and the reason why you are nominating that small business.
