16K999 Complaint Inspection

Compliance Date: Not Specified

Reference - HSC

Inspector Comments: A complaint inspection was conducted on this date, 6/29/2022, based on a complaint received by Environmental Health Services(EHS) on 6/27/2022. Complainant stated the facility was selling expired candy and condiments, that the self-serve ketchup has mold, the nacho cheese is old, and that there is a rodent infestation.

Spoke with the manager of the facility who stated the following:
- They were unaware of the complaint.
- They do not have a self-serve ketchup dispenser nor a nacho cheese dispenser.
- The facility has a pest control service but was unable to provide an invoice prior to the end of the inspection.

Made the following observations:
- No ketchup dispenser nor nacho cheese dispensers were observed in the facility.
- Several different candies had exceeded their best by dates.
- Observed ants throughout the perimeter of the facility, including the prepackaged area, the employee only area, and inside of the walk-in refrigerator.
- Observed rodent droppings throughout the facility.

Facility was instructed to eliminate the ants and rodent droppings from the facility, and to clean and sanitize all affected areas. A follow-up inspection will be conducted on or after 7/5/2022 to verify compliance. Failure to comply will result in additional billable re-reinspections at a minimum charge of $122.50 per 30 minutes.

Description: A complaint report has been received by Environmental Health.
