"FULFILLING THE PROMISE OF EMS"

FREE MINI-CONFERENCE

January 13, 2014 8:00 AM – 12:00 noon
Desert Regional Medical Center
Sinatra Education Center auditorium
1150 N. Indian Canyon Drive, Palm Springs, CA

Objectives: This presentation focuses on collaboration, prioritization, command, and leadership methods to manage the unexpected.

Target Audience: EMS field providers and administrators, hospital medical and administrative personnel, public health personnel, other interested parties

7:30 AM – 8:00 AM Registration

*Introduction, Bruce Barton, Riverside County EMS Agency Director

Daved van Stralen, MD, FAAP, Medical Director, Riverside County EMS Agency and Bruce Barton, Riverside County EMS Agency Director:
*Fulfilling the Promise of EMS

Christopher A. Hart, Vice Chairman, National Transportation Safety Board:
* Collaboration and Common Prioritization between Organizations: Lessons from Commercial Aviation

Thomas A. Mercer, Rear Admiral, United States Navy (retired):
* Leadership for Reliability: Subic Bay, Mt. Pinatubo, and a Tropical Storm

Dan Kleinman, Operations Section Chief, National Incident Management Organization, U.S. Forest Service:
*Having Purpose

RSVP to Georgia Herbaugh: GHerbaug@rivcocha.org or call (951) 358-5029

Up to 4.0 hours EMS Continuing Education possible. This course has been approved by Riverside County EMS Agency, CE Provider #33-0001, for 4 hours of Instructor based CE and includes a certificate of completion.
Conference Coordinators: Daved van Stralen, MD; Laura Wallin, RN