PREPARE FOR THE FUTURE

Come chart the course for the future of San Bernardino County! The County is hosting eight open houses in October to present progress on the Countywide Plan and discuss your thoughts on a variety of topics including:

- Land use (current & proposed)
- Draft Community Plans
- Public safety & security
- Economic & social resources
- Health & wellness
- Circulation & mobility
- Natural resources & hazards
- Public & social services
- Environmental justice
- Web-based maps

There are many ways to participate at these regional open houses:

- Surveys
- Comment cards
- Review the proposed Land Use Plan
- Review draft Community Plans
- Explore web-based maps
- Kids coloring station
- Selfie station

These events are part of an ongoing outreach process that has included over 66 community meetings. Thank you for getting involved in improving your community and county!
