Dinon discussed the LGIC community meeting last Sunday. He was pleased with how the meeting went.

Sign Committee: Connie Bracher

Bracher discussed that the committee met one more time and made some minor changes to the final draft.

7.0 Community/Agency Updates

Travis Thogmartin, Cal Fire;

There are currently no large fires in the State of California. Locally all resources are back from other fires. There was a fire on Hwy 18 this past weekend. The fire did not get established. Fall season is coming with potential winds. Fire safe council is offering curbside chipping.

Juan Quintenieros , CHP:

The CHP is coming to the end of their annual grant cycle. They will use the balance to fund a saturation patrol for Labor Day weekend. He discussed the commander vacancy at the Running Springs office, and that the previous commander has been relocated to the Barstow office. He also mentioned that the recent fire on 18 forced a road closure.

Chris Freeman, Lake Gregory Recreation Company

This Saturday will be live music at Lake Gregory. On Sunday they will hold their first Luau. It will be limited to 150 people. They will have fire dancing. He discussed the skate park; specifically the recent clean up. They had lots of volunteers including boys and girls club, local church groups, and families. They repaired the broken gates. AThey have been locking up the park in the evenings. Hook security has been patrolling. Sheriff has stepped up their patrols.

8.0 Old New Business: Lake Gregory Skate Park

Chris Freeman, LGRC, Discussed the skate park. Tomorrow they will be implementing a plan. They held a volunteer barbeque and clean up with great results. Citizens on Patrol & Hook Security are increasing their presence at the skate park.
