6.0 Supervisor's Report

Lewis reported that Supervisor Rutherford sponsored an event called "Community Vital Signs" and that it was well attended. The Supervisor will be attending several events on the mountain this month including Mountain Sunrise Rotary, The Lake Arrowhead Library Volunteer recognitions, Hearts and Lives Open House, Lake Arrowhead Repertory Theater Grand opening, as well as meeting with constituents. Related to last month's meeting, Murray distributed a map showing the City/County border on Old Waterman Canyon Road, which shows that the area of excessive brush is actually in the city limits. County Roads has sent a request to the city regarding clearing the brush. Murray also updated the MAC on the County Ordinance related to signs and banners.

7.0 Lake Gregory Update: Special Presentation – Rick Dinon, Lake Gregory Improvement Committee

No report due to Dinon's absence. Murray addressed a question regarding a rumor related to the lake being sold. He stated that as far as he knows, the plan is to keep ownership by the County and enter into a contract with an outside company to run the operations.
