Culture is a strong part of our lives. It influences our views, our values, our humor, our hopes, our loyalties, and our worries and fears. Join the Office of Cultural Competency and Ethnic Services as we feature and highlight various elements of culture and human experiences that often are misunderstood.

THE VIDEOS WE HAVE FEATURED ARE GEARED TO ADDRESS

Alternative ideas about what constitutes health
Language barriers and ineffective communication
Mistrust and fear of seeking services

WHAT WILL I GET FROM THIS EXPERIENCE ?

- Participants will be able to recognize cultural messages that have led to misunderstandings for marginalized cultural groups.
- Participants will identify opportunities to implement general cultural competency standards into behavioral health practice.
- Participants will learn about alternative approaches to address behavioral health needs of individuals that represent marginalized cultural groups.
