

Train-the-Trainer: Mental Health Boards 101

Friday, April 17, 2015

1:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Registration and complementary lunch available at 11:45 AM

Representatives from Local Mental Health Boards and Commissions will be trained as trainers to deliver the “Mental Health Board 101” training. Participants will receive a training “tool-kit” containing materials they can use to train their members in their local regions.

Location:

San Pedro DoubleTree Hotel
2800 Via Cabrillo Marina
San Pedro, California 90731

Registration:

Click Here to register

Who Should Attend:

Local Mental Health Board and Commission Members. Attendance is restricted to only one member from each local LMHBC.

Registration Fee:

Free.

Learning Objectives:

After attending this training, participants will:

- ❖ Understand and present the syllabus and “toolkit” for MHB 101
- ❖ Acquire facilitation skills and techniques to engage adult learners
- ❖ Increase awareness of the unique roles of LMHB/C’s in different counties

Hotel and Travel Information:

CIBHS has a limited number of hotel rooms at the Current Hotel in Long Beach available at no charge for local Board & Commission members traveling from significant distances outside of the Southern California area. Most travel costs will be reimbursed and parking will be pre-paid by CIBHS for all the Local Board & Commission members attending the training. Contact

For information about the training, contact:

Shoshana Zatz
szatz@cibhs.org (916) 379-5341

For travel/lodging information contact:

Kelly Bitz
kbitz@cibhs.org (916) 379-5322

