

THE ART OF RAMÓN CONTRERAS AND THE MEXICAN MURALISTS MOVEMENT

ADULT AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

Sunday, May 3, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. International Museum Day.

Express Yourself! Express traditional family stories through art with muralist Dan Doy Nguyen. Create family collages. Find out about the Public Art Movement, meet artists, see their tools and portfolios, listen to artist discussions, and enjoy performance art. Add your creativity to a community mural. Free museum admission and Arts—naturally! program support are sponsored by the James Irvine Foundation.

Date to be announced. Chalk It Up!

Watch demonstrations by chalk artists; make your own individual or family chalk art works.

Cartivities: Discover Color

Museum educators and volunteers will host activity carts in the exhibit on selected Saturdays and Sundays. Make a family collage to share your own family stories.

Watch for more programs related to The Art of Ramón Contreras and the Mexican Muralists Movement when the museum's 2009–10 annual events calendar has been finalized.
