Supervisor Rutherford Seeks Input from Local Businesspeople

March 23, 2011 —FONTANA—Local businesspeople and entrepreneurs are invited to share their thoughts, ideas, and suggestions with San Bernardino County Second District Supervisor Janice Rutherford during an evening roundtable event on Thursday, March 31 at the Jessie Turner Community Center.

“I want to hear what makes this county’s economy work and what doesn’t, and I want to hear it from the businesspeople who make things happen,” Rutherford said. “I want to know what businesses need to succeed and how the County of San Bernardino can help pave the way for that success.”

According to the California Employment Development Department, the unemployment rate in San Bernardino County for January 2011 was 14.1 percent.

The business roundtable will be held from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at the Jessie Turner Community Center located at 15556 Summit Ave. in Fontana. Call (909) 387-4833 or visit www.sbcounty.gov/Rutherford for more information or to register.

Second District Supervisor Rutherford represents the cities of Fontana, Rancho Cucamonga, and Upland as well as the unincorporated communities of Crestline, Valley of Enchantment, Cedarpines Park, Lytle Creek, Mt. Baldy, San Antonio Heights, and Devore.
