San Bernardino County Assessor-Recorder-Clerk Warns of Suspicious Activity

SAN BERNARDINO, CA (May 19, 2017) – The office of San Bernardino County Assessor-Recorder-Clerk Bob Dutton is alerting the public about recent multiple reports of suspicious activity in and around the City of San Bernardino and Highland.

According to complaints received from the public, individuals are knocking door-to-door claiming to be “Assessor Representatives” without providing proper identification. The District Attorney’s office and local law enforcement have been notified of these events.

Assessor staff will always produce proper identification. The public is advised that Assessor staff are in the field to conduct inspections solely for assessment purposes.

If you encounter a situation where someone represents themselves as an Assessor employee and you have any doubts, please call the San Bernardino County Assessor’s Office toll-free phone number: (877) 885-7654.
