Programs and services created by the County of San Bernardino received a record 16 Achievement Awards from the National Association of Counties (NACo) for 2009. The Board of Supervisors recognized and honored the people and departments responsible for the programs and services during the Board of Supervisors meeting on August 11, 2009.

The NACo Achievement Awards Program recognizes counties for improving the services they deliver to the public. The awards focus on innovation and the use of technology. The county is particularly pleased that a record 16 awards were received this year and San Bernardino County was the only inland Southern California honoree for 2009. The following are San Bernardino County’s winning programs:

- Demonstration Garden/Facilities Management Department
- We Can/ Department of Aging & Adult Services
