

San Bernardino County Museum Dome Talks 2018

Dome Talks are evening discussions that feature leading authors and thought leaders discussing topics relevant to the past, present, and future of our Inland Southern California region. The 2018 line-up addresses radical social changes and environmental forces affecting the lives of Californians.

Doors open at 6:30 PM.
Speakers begin at 7:00 PM.

Upcoming Dome Talks

