Where We Serve

At 20,160 square miles, San Bernardino County is the largest county in the continental United States and our jurisdiction encompasses 17,432 square miles of extremely diverse environments that stretch from the Los Angeles County line on the west, to the Colorado River on the east, to the Nevada State line and Kern and Inyo counties on the north.

San Bernardino County's Diversity

Our jurisdiction encounters hazards that include floods, fires, earthquakes, and train derailments, among others, that can impact highly urbanized metropolitan areas, industrial centers and our portion of the major interstate highway and railroad transportation corridors that serve Southern California. We are also home to major entertainment venues such as the Hyundai Pavilion and the California Speedway. Our mountain resort areas, the Colorado River and vast high-use recreational desert lands underscore our diverse geography.

Beyond Emergency Response

Our services go far beyond response to fire and incidents within our county. We also specialize in many impressive services such as our multiple household hazardous waste programs that have won national recognition. Our vehicle services, warehouse operations, facilities maintenance, and training center are all state-of-the-art, with some of the most talented people found in the fire service.
