Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County To Host Community Needs Forums Series

San Bernardino, CA – Thursday, April 7, 2011 - Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County is holding a series of community needs forums which are free and open to the public. We are seeking the input of low-income county residents and other interested parties regarding the conditions and causes of poverty in order to best assess how to administer our programs and resources to meet these needs.

COMMUNITY NEEDS FORUMS

FREE EVENT • OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED

Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County (CAPSBC) is inviting low-income residents and other interested participants to attend one of our Community Needs Forums being held throughout the county.

The purpose of the Forums is to gather input on conditions and causes of poverty, the needs of the low-income community, and to identify programs addressing those needs.

All testimony will be included in CAPSBC's 2012-2013 Community Action Plan which prioritizes agency resources.
