“Support Your Local Food Bank” Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County

40 volunteers from Wells Fargo packed grocery bags with USDA surplus food for needy families.

of beverages. Thank you to Wells Fargo volunteers for participating in yet another day of packing food for needy families at the Food Bank warehouse. Thank You to Feed The Children who recently became a partner agency with CAPSBC. The Oklahoma City-based agency will provide food and other supplies to CAPSBC.

Patricia L. Nickols, CEO at CAPSBC, stated “We all look forward to the day when these needs are fully met, until then, you too can help make a difference. The Food Bank accepts donations of food and cash, plus volunteers are always needed to help pack food for distribution. If you are interested in helping, call (909) 723-1580.”

CAPSBC is the designated Community Action Agency for San Bernardino County charged with providing programs and services for low-income individuals and families to help lift them out of poverty. As one of the largest non-profit human services agency in San Bernardino County, CAPSBC provides resources and opportunities to the low-income to improve their lives, contribute to their communities and offer a return on investment for our communities, cities and county. Programs include Weatherization, Home Energy Assistance, Family Development, Assets for Independence/Individual Development Accounts, Volunteer Income Tax Assistance, Homeless Management Information Systems and the CAPSBC Food Bank. For more information about Community Action Partnership and it’s programs call (909) 723-1514 or visit us on the web at www.capsbc.org

SAN BERNARDINO, CA (Wednesday, Oct. 6, 2010) - There are many ways that a business, group or individual person can help to make a difference in their community. Opportunities to do something are always available at the Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County (CAPSBC) Food Bank. The Food Bank currently helps feed an estimated 107,095 people at 213 locations throughout San Bernardino County. CAPSBC reminds everyone to remember to donate this Fall to those in need.

Thank you to Kaiser Permanente for their food drive at 16 pharmacy locations where they collected 900 lbs. of food. Thank you to Pepsi Bottling Company for donating 80,660 lbs.

Rebecca Hoggarth, CAPSBC Food Bank Program Assistant, receives donations from Kaiser Permanente Pharmacy Director, Phyllip Dedden, who helped organize a food drive.
