Violation Reference - HSC

Inspector Comments: Received complaint reporting that complainant ate a dine-in meal of blackened barramundi fish, quinoa salad, grilled vegetables and iced tea at this facility on 12/10/13 at approximately 9:00 pm. Complainant stated that they began vomiting 20 to 30 minutes later which lasted throughout the night. Complainant reported being well the following day, and did not seek medical attention. Complainant stated that they thought the quinoa salad tasted bad and the fish had short hairs on it.

Complainant also stated that the letter grade of B was hidden.

During complaint investigation on 12-16-13, observed that the letter grade was in the same location that the inspector had posted it.

Operator stated that quinoa salad mixture and barramundi fish are kept frozen. Observed that quinoa salad was properly frozen. Observed that barramundi fish was properly frozen. (Neither of these items were observed in the cooks' line.) Observed that barramundi fish is kept in individual packages while frozen; observed small hairs that belong to the fish.

Complaint is now closed.
