Compliance Date: Not Specified
Not In Compliance
Violation Reference - HSC

Inspector Comments: The program of Environmental Health received a complaint that an employee with wounds on their hands was preparing food without wearing any gloves. The complainant also stated that the beer taps are filthy and meat is stored in a cooler outside and it is not at the proper temperature. Observed employees wearing gloves while preparing food and their hands free of wounds. Observed beer taps free of debris. According to the operator they are washed and sanitized every evening. Observed potato salad at 39F (an approved cold holding temperature) in a cooler stored outside however, the unit is only to be used for holding beverages.

Violation Description: A complaint report has been received by Environmental Health.
