Overall Inspection Comments

The purpose for today's visit address the notice for a supervisory review for non-compliance for food worker cards. During the visit, the manager stated that the food worker cards were faxed in after the second billable re-inspection conducted on March 17, 2015. Observed transmission report stating that it was faxed on March 25, 2015. Observed verification report incomplete.

Observed the two missing food worker cards. Facility has been cleared on the field for food worker cards.

No further action is required at this time for this violation.

If there are any questions, please contact Environmental Health Services or Melissa Nano at (800) 442-2283.
