Inspector Comments: Our department received a complaint of snails in the vegetable bowl the complainant was eating. The owner, Shi Quanshou, stated that a man and a woman, after they finished eating their lunch meal, complained that there were snails in the vegetable bowl they were eating. He stated that he asked them to show him the snails which they could not. The owner stated that the couple started running outside toward the street because they did not want to pay for their meal. He stated that they chased them and brought them back to the facility to pay. The owner added that after they paid, they threatened to file a complaint with the Health Department.

At the time of inspection, no snails or any adulteration observed in the vegetables or any food items.

Description: A complaint report has been received by Environmental Health.
