16K999 Complaint Inspection

Compliance Date: Not Specified

Not In Compliance

Reference - HSC

Inspector Comments: This complaint alleges that a customer found a piece of plastic in a taco. Also, this complaint alleges that an employee of this facility picked up food items that were dropped on the floor and then put this food back for future service to customer.

Description: A complaint report has been received by Environmental Health.

Overall Inspection Comments

A routine inspection was completed on the same day as this complaint. A grade of 90 (A) was obtained at that time.

The complainant informed management of this issue. Management stated that it was a burrito in question, not a taco. Management denied that any plastic was present in this burrito. Also, management denied that any food items were dropped on the floor and then re-served to the public. Money was given back to the complainant.

Case closed.
