Inspector Comments: An investigation was conducted regarding a complaint received by Environmental Health Services on 3/6/15. The complainant stated that the facility uses chaffing dishes at a buffet every Sunday. Observed poster at entrance for Champagne Sunday Brunch every Sunday 9 am to 3 pm at which the following dishes are served buffet style: handmade corn tortillas, omelette bar, salad bar, menudo, pozole, carnitas, carne asada tacos, fresh fruit, mexican pastries, and desserts. The manager stated the following regarding the Champagne Sunday Brunch: (1) the buffet consists of food items served in chaffing dishes on tables arranged in a line along a wall in the dining room. (2) At the omelette bar, a single butane-fueled stove is used to cook omelettes to order on a table in the dining room near the kitchen. (3) The tortillas are cooked on a tabletop griddle at a station next to the omelette bar. (4) The food items are covered with lids at the buffet and all three stations are protected with sneeze guards. (5) The buffet is taken down when the customer volume decreases (usually within 3 hours). (6) The chaffing dishes are preheated at 7 am for 9 am service. (7) All items except omelettes and tortillas are prepared within the kitchen.

Violation Description: A complaint report has been received by Environmental Health.
