Based on an inspection this day, the items marked below identify the violation(s) in operation or facilities which must be corrected. Failure to correct listed violation(s) prior to the designated compliance date may necessitate an additional inspection to be billed at the hourly rate as provided in the San Bernardino County Code, Schedule of Fees.

Administrative Order to Show Cause (OSC): The Permittee has the right to a hearing if requested in writing within 15 calendar days of receipt of this notice, to show cause why the permit to operate should not be suspended or revoked; otherwise the right to a hearing shall be deemed waived.

See the following pages for the code sections and general requirements that correspond to each violation listed below.

16K888 Food Handler Certification - Billable Re-Reinspection

Compliance Date: Not Specified

Not In Compliance

Reference - SBCC - 33.0409

Inspector Comments: This facility is currently in violation with the food worker certification requirement for San Bernardino County, which states all food workers must obtain a valid food worker certificate within fourteen (14) days of employment (33.0410, 33.044). Facility has failed to submit the missing food worker certification within fourteen (14) days resulting in unannounced billable (at our current hourly rate) re-inspections to verify compliance today. Facility has to comply within 7 days to avoid future recurrent billable re-inspection. This facility operator must complete Missing Food Worker" form provided by the inspector and fax to Missing Food Worker" form provided by the inspector and fax to 909-387-4272

Description: During your last routine inspection, it was noted that your facility was in violation of the food handler certification requirement for San Bernardino County. Since the inspection, food handler certification compliance has not been verified by Environmental Health staff. A billable reinspection has been conducted on this date to verify compliance.
