16K999 Complaint Inspection

Compliance Date: Not Specified

Not In Compliance

Reference - HSC

Inspector Comments: A complaint investigation was conducted today, May 13th, 2015. According to the complainant, it was alleged that shortly after eating an egg, cheese, and hashbrown breakfast burrito at this facility on 5/8/2015, he began having nausea and diarrhea. This was followed by vomiting during the evening and all throughout the next day.

Upon inspection, all food items in question (eggs, cheese, hashbrowns) were found to be in the proper cold holding temperature range, below 41 degrees F, in both the small kitchen reach-in refrigeration unit as well as in the walk-in refrigeration unit. All food handling procedures and storage of food items were in compliance. Handwashing station had hot running water and was stocked with soap and paper towels. Per PIC, no employees reported in to work as sick during the time frame of this complaint, nor did any show any signs or symptoms of illness.

Description: A complaint report has been received by Environmental Health.
