SUBJECT: CONTINUING EDUCATION HOURS FOR SO CAL EMS PILOT TO IMPROVE CARDIAC ARREST LIFESPAN COURSE ONLINE

On September 4, 2014, ICEMA hosted a SCEPTICAL (Southern California EMS Pilot to Improve Cardiac Arrest Lifespan) seminar which was presented by Dr. Dan Davis of UC San Diego. The video recording of this seminar is now posted on the ICEMA website for continuing education credits. This presentation was provided through the ICEMA speaker series and highlights team resource management for cardiac arrest events.

Continuing Education (CE) providers are responsible for providing continuing education and credit for personnel who review this course. Providers are required to follow normal submission of CE rosters to ICEMA.
