

A Guthrie Weekend

Like his famous song, "This Land is Your Land," Woody Guthrie was a troubadour who traveled by foot and freight train from California to the New York island. He traveled Route 66 and visited the migrant camps in the Inland Empire in the 1930s. He wrote thousands of songs, leaving the footprint of his music and stories across America.

Joel Rafael Presents Woody's America

Friday, April 8, 7:30PM at the San Bernardino County Museum
Free to the public

Joel Rafael has been a featured performer at the annual Woody Guthrie Folk Festival in Okemah, Oklahoma since it started in 1998. A natural interpreter of Woody Guthrie's music, Rafael is also a member of the national touring cast of the Guthrie revue, "Ribbon of Highway." Rafael mixes traditional folk idioms with contemporary ideas and sensibilities.

Go Waggaloo!

An interactive concert performed by Sarah Lee Guthrie and Johnny Irion
Saturday, April 9, 1:30PM at the San Bernardino County Museum
Free with paid museum admission

Traditional folk music blends with contemporary lyrics in this interactive musical experience for children written and performed by Sarah Lee Guthrie (granddaughter of Woody Guthrie) and her husband, Johnny Irion. The event emphasizes the gift of sharing music between parents and children. Come early: from 11:30 to 1:15 we will make rattles to play during the concert.

Journey On with folk legend Arlo Guthrie, in concert at the Fox Performing Arts Center in Riverside on Sunday, April 10 at 7:30 PM.
