

Preview the opening of our new exhibit,
The Fabrics of our Past: 1860s–1960s

A Fab Fashionable Evening

Friday, April 27, 2012 • 5:30 TO 8:30 PM
at the San Bernardino County Museum

Reservations required

A Fab Fashionable Evening

opening night preview for our newest exhibit

The Fabrics of our Past: 1860s–1960s

Friday, April 27, 5:30 to 8:30 pm

San Bernardino County Museum

- Glam it up in fabulous threads—wear something from your favorite fashion era and rock the runway to sounds from So Cal Entertainment Solutions in a mini fashion show
- Indulge in decadent desserts from Orange Tree Deli of Redlands
- Create something bedazzling in our hands-on family studio
- Watch Western Textile Center Association guild members demonstrate embellishment technique
 - On the catwalk: toddlers to seniors model clothing from Macy's and Devi of Redlands
- Strike a pose during our red carpet photo opportunity

Members free • non-members $10/person Reserve by April 18: call (909) 307-2669 ext. 227 or e-mail museum@sbcounty.gov

A Fab Fashionable Evening is hosted by the San Bernardino County Museum Association and the San Bernardino County Museum History Division. Fabrics of our Past opens to the public April 28, 2012. This exhibit is made possible through a generous donation from the Western Textile Center Association.

San Bernardino County Museum

2024 Orange Tree Lane, Redlands CA 92374
(Calif. St. exit from Interstate 10)
www.sbcountymuseum.org

