

Information for New Education Volunteers

You are invited to attend:

1. Education potluck lunch and training on Sunday, January 28, from 12:00 to 2:00 p.m. Be our guest for lunch in the Education Center, and then learn more about our history and anthropology exhibits.
2. Education potluck lunch (yes, more food!) and training on Thursday, February 1, from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. As a prospective volunteer in the Education Division, join us for lunch and a dynamic presentation by Kathleen Springer, Geology Curator, as she teaches us about this vibrant area we live in and why we tend to get so shaky! Food at 1:00 p.m. and presentation at 1:45 p.m. in the Education Center.
3. NEVOH (or New Education Volunteer Open House) on Thursday evening, February 8, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the Museum's Hall of History. Discover the variety of jobs that Education volunteers do at the Museum and experience a Cart Talk with one of our "vintage" volunteers.
4. Now that you're inspired to become an Education volunteer, you can arrange to start training for the important job of Museum interpreter!

Sign up for one session of "Training, Part 1" and one session of "Training, Part 2."

- Training, Part 1: Thursday, February 15, 6:30 – 9:00 p.m.
OR
  - Training, Part 1: Friday, February 16, 1:00 – 3:30 p.m.
AND
  - Training, Part 2: Thursday, February 22, 6:30 – 9:00 p.m.
OR
  - Training, Part 2: Friday, February 23, 9:30 – 12:00 p.m.
- ❖ If you can only come on one day, we are offering one combined training:
- Marathon Training, Parts 1 and 2 combined: Saturday, February 24, 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. (Bring a snack for mid-training!)

Sign up for these training sessions by calling Nancy Kirkwood at 909-307-2669. ext. 271. Please leave a message, including your name and phone number, if I'm not there!
