

Hunting for Eggs at the County Museum

Saturday, April 3, 2010, starting at 1:00 p.m.

The county museum has the fifth largest egg collection in the world. What could be better than literally hunting for eggs at the museum—everyone is sure to find some!

- “Hunt for Eggs” from 1 to 2:30 p.m.
- The egg hunt, designed for families with children age 12 and younger, is included with paid museum admission.
- It’s a scavenger hunt taking you around the museum to search for answers to clues.
- Two ways to search: families with pre-schoolers, and school-age kids who want to “solo.”
- Pluck a fun-filled plastic egg from the Big Egg Basket.
- Enter the Big Egg Opportunity Drawing (3 p.m.) for even more fabulous prizes, including
  - Museum Association family memberships
  - discounts on museum Summer Camp registration
  - passes to the Orange Empire Railway Museum
  - tickets to the Palm Springs Aerial tramway
  - restaurant and book store certificates and gift cards
  - scooter
  - bunny baskets
  - and even more!
- Plus activities so you can learn even more about birds!
  - cart talks • make bird flip-books • fold origami birds
- BBQ lunches, snacks, and beverages available for purchase.
