

CELEBRATE!

The San Bernardino County Museum and its historic sites and branches—perfect places for a memorable gathering: wedding, reception, family reunion, anniversary, celebration of life, quinceañera parties, or any special occasion.

THE ASISTENCIA

26930 Barton Road in Redlands • California State Historical Landmark #42

The Asistencia has been hosting weddings and special celebrations since its restoration was completed in 1937. Up to 100 guests can attend your ceremony in our mission-style chapel. Our landscaped, gated courtyard can accommodate more than 300 of your guests and is the perfect setting for outdoor receptions, celebrations, and festive gatherings.

- Day or evening events • Outdoor lighting • Courtyard seating • Table & chair rentals
- Free parking • Catering kitchen • Officiant services available

JOHN RAINS HOUSE

8810 Hemlock in Rancho Cucamonga • National Register of Historic Places

The John Rains House was constructed in 1860 on the Cucamonga Rancho. With soaring ceilings and a central courtyard, the house typifies early California residential architecture. Landscaped grounds are complemented by a vineyard where grapes have been planted since 1839. Up to 75 guests can attend your ceremony or special event under the shade of the graceful pepper trees on our landscaped grounds, or on the covered porches.

- Day or evening events • Free parking • Outdoor lighting • Covered patio

THE YUCAIPA ADOBE

32183 Kentucky Street in Yucaipa • California State Historical Landmark #528

This site was part of the original land grant for the San Bernardino Rancho, dating from 1842. This adobe family home is thought to have been constructed in 1858–1859. Our covered front porch and shaded expanses of lawn can accommodate up to 100 guests for your garden ceremony or special event.

- Daytime events • Free parking • Officiant services available
