

Family Workshops Summer 2011

Family workshops are from 1 to 4pm, and are open to all. Activities are geared to families with kids ages 5 and above. Cost is museum admission plus $5 per person for materials. Space is limited and reservations are required by calling the Education Division at (909) 307-2669 ext. 256.

Shaping Clay

Saturday, July 23

From the earth, clay is a building material, art medium, and speaker of history. In this workshop, participants will learn basic shaping techniques using self-drying clay that is affordable and easy to find. Create designs to decorate your creations. Take home two or more finished pieces.

Fight for the cause: poster graphics

Saturday, August 6

What is your cause? Is it the environment, a social situation in your neighborhood, politics, education, or the arts? Make a statement in this workshop by creating high-impact graphic posters promoting a special cause. Posters will be exhibited for other visitors to enjoy, if desired. Bring a friend and bring a cause!

Feeling Groovy

Sunday, August 28

One reaction to the civil rights movements and the on-going Vietnam war in the 1960s was taking action to promote peace. In this workshop, step back in time and have fun with the symbols and products that retain their meaning even today. Remember tie-dying and peace signs? How about flower-power? Participants will enjoy making works of art that symbolize peace. We will supply a handkerchief or you can bring your own white t-shirt to tie-dye.

Family Fun Day, Dolls for Everyone

Saturday, July 30, from 1 to 4pm.

Girls and boys all over the world make and enjoy dolls of many different types. Families will enjoy making three kinds of dolls using styles and materials from American Indians, Mexico, and American overland pioneers. Designed for ages 3 and up. $1/person in addition to regular museum admission.
