

A Book Club for Middle School and High School Kids at the San Bernardino County Museum

Join us on the 2nd Tuesday of each month from 4:00 to 5:30 PM to discuss the book of the month. All readers welcome!

Read the book. Talk about what you liked.

Meet friends. Suggest the next book.

March 13.

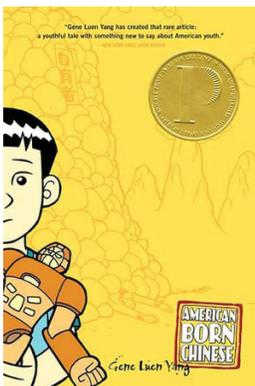

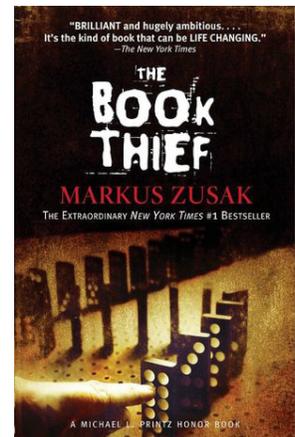

Immortal Beloved by Cate Tiernan.

What do you live for when you live forever? A varied group of immortals seek to regain the immediacy and emotion of life fully lived. It's not an easy fit for Nastasya, and as she learns about her companions, the ghosts of her long and dark past rise vividly to haunt her.

April 10.

Book Thief by Markus Zusak.

Set during World War II in Germany, Markus Zusak's groundbreaking new novel is the story of Liesel Meminger, a foster girl living outside of Munich. This is an unforgettable story about the ability of books to feed the soul.

May 8.

American Born Chinese by Gene Luen Yang.

When his family moves to a new neighborhood, he suddenly finds that he's the only Chinese-American student at his school. Three apparently unrelated tales come together with an unexpected twist, in a modern fable that is hilarious, poignant, and action-packed.

images and some book information from barnesandnoble.com

Tell me more:

For details, contact Jolene Redvale, coordinator, at 909-307-2669 x 1252 or jredvale@sbcm.sbcounty.gov. All readers are welcome. Discussions take place at the County Museum (at the California St. exit from the I-10 in Redlands) and participation is free. Books range in subject and content appealing to readers aged 12-18. We encourage you to attend discussions even if you haven't read the book. Suggestions for future titles accepted. Parents are encouraged to research book titles to help their children determine if the book will be appropriate for their interests and reading level.