The New and Improved Fire Station No. 73 Groundbreaking

The City of Fontana celebrated the Groundbreaking of the New and Improved Fire Station No. 73, located at 8143 Banana Ave Fontana, CA. The new station will improve response times and provide efficient delivery of emergency medical and fire service throughout the growth & build out of this portion of the City. The event was hosted by City of Fontana Mayor Acquanetta Warren, in attendance; The Fontana City Council, Chair of the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors-Janice Rutherford, San Bernardino County Fire Chief Mark Hartwig, Division Chief Jon McLinn, and Fontana Police Chief Rodney Jones. The approximately 7,000 square foot facility will replace a station built in 1960 and house a paramedic engine, hazardous materials response units and have space for six firefighters.
