Library offers Wowbrary e-newsletter

Wowbrary newsletters are now a part of the San Bernardino County Library's collection of free resources. Wowbrary provides weekly emails showcasing the Library's most recent acquisitions, including print, audio/visual, and digital titles. Customers can see a list of the most popular new additions or choose to browse provided lists of new materials by genre. All items listed link directly to the Library's catalog (<http://sbclib.polarislibrary.com/polaris/>) where customers can request items and manage their accounts.

Library customers who receive email notifications will automatically begin receiving Wowbrary updates. Learn more about Wowbrary and sign up today to begin receiving the San Bernardino County Library's newest resource by visiting <http://www.wowbrary.org/signup.aspx>.

For information on this resource and other community resources, please visit your local San Bernardino County Library, call (909) 387-2220 or visit our website at www.sbclib.org.

The San Bernardino County Library system is a dynamic network of 32 branch libraries that serves a diverse population over a vast geographic area. The County library system strives to provide equal access to information, technology, programs, and services for all the people who call San Bernardino County home.

The library plays a key role in the achievement of the Countywide Vision by contributing to educational, cultural, and historical development of our County community.
