Board of Supervisors meets Tuesday in Victorville

Residents of the High Desert on Tuesday will have their first-ever opportunity to see the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors in action close to home when the board conducts its December 13 regular meeting in Victorville.

Tuesday will mark the first time the Board of Supervisors has conducted a regular meeting outside of its chambers in San Bernardino. Under a policy change proposed by Board of Supervisors Chairman Bill Postmus earlier this year, the board may conduct meetings in other locations in the county to make county government more available to the public.

"I'm proud that our first regular meeting outside of San Bernardino will be held in my district," Chairman Postmus said. "So much of what the county does affects the High Desert, yet the Board of Supervisors has never conducted a meeting there."

The public meeting will begin at 10 a.m. Tuesday, December 13, 2005, at Victorville City Hall, 14343 Civic Drive, in Victorville.

"On behalf of Victorville residents, I applaud the Board's decision to hold a meeting in the fastest growing region of the County," said Victorville Mayor Mike Rothschild.
