

News Release

Joe Baca, Jr.

Supervisor, Fifth District

For Immediate Release

CONTACT: Amanda Fakhoury
Communications Advisor
Amanda.Fakhoury@bos.sbcounty.gov

September 6th, 2022

Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. Spotlights Hardworking Citizens in our County in honor of Labor Day.

San Bernardino, CA.- In honor of Labor Day, which was September 5th, 2022, Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr. spotlighted four individuals who have gone the extra mile in their areas of work. Their contributions towards helping the county grow are paving the way for those to be inspired by.

“Labor Day is meant to celebrate the hard work and dedication of our citizens. We wanted to spotlight a few of our many wonderful citizens that work in our San Bernardino County that were nominated by their labor groups. Those that were chosen were hand-picked by their colleagues, who felt that they had gone above and beyond in and out of the workplace. Below is a list of those who were nominated. We are so proud to have you working to make our community a better place for all.” - Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr.

1. San Bernardino County’s Probation Officer Association: Juan Preciado, Division Director II.
2. San Bernardino County Fire: Corbin Dorado, Fire Support Manager.
3. SEIU 721: Darren Guentert, Social Service Practitioner III.
4. Sheriff’s Employees’ Benefit Association (SEBA): Sergeant Danny Rosa, Vice President.

Happy Labor Day! We thank all our hard-working citizens who help keep our county growing in the right direction!