Hagman Offers Opportunity For Residents To Serve

ONTARIO – San Bernardino County Fourth District Supervisor Curt Hagman today announced that his office is seeking applicants to help serve San Bernardino County by participating in crucial boards and commissions. Specifically, Hagman is seeking qualifying members to join entities related to the county Museum, Civil Service, Senior Affairs, Veterans Advisory, and Housing Authority.

“It is my pleasure to offer applicants an important opportunity to improve San Bernardino County’s quality of life by working with like-minded individuals on important boards in service to our shared region,” started Supervisor Hagman. “People serving on such boards and commissions are a valuable asset to our county as their recommendations and guidance help shape policy. As community leaders, their work is crucial for policymakers to create real solutions to challenges facing Fourth District residents.”

Prior to entering elected office, Supervisor Hagman served his hometown as a member of the Chino Hills Parks and Recreation Commission, a volunteer position.

“Serving the community as an active participant in issues that affect thousands of county residents means board and commission members are making a real and positive difference,” continued Hagman. “It is my sincere hope that Fourth District constituents from all walks of life will apply for these important positions.”

Individuals interested in being considered may apply by visiting the County Clerk’s website: <http://cms.sbcounty.gov/cob/Forms/BCCApplication.aspx>. Additional information can be obtained by sending an email to supervisor.hagman@bos.sbcounty.gov or by calling Supervisor Hagman’s office at (909) 387-4866.

San Bernardino County’s Fourth Supervisorial District includes the cities of Chino, Chino Hills, Ontario, Upland and Montclair.
