Supervisor Hagman Seeks Citizen Volunteer Leaders

ONTARIO, CA – San Bernardino County Supervisor Curt Hagman today invited residents of his Fourth Supervisorial District to apply for vacant positions on various volunteer Boards and Commissions of San Bernardino County government.

“I want to bring new people into county government offices, and open the doors of all our public entities to participation and involvement by ordinary citizens.” said Hagman. “I’m looking for talented and committed volunteers to bring a fresh new perspective to public offices, and improve the quality of information and services we provide to our residents”.

Vacancies and expired terms currently exist on the Assessment Appeals Board, Behavioral Health Commission, Civil Service Commission, and Equal Opportunity Commission. Interested citizens may apply on-line through the Clerk of the Board website: <http://bit.ly/2a3jl00>. A complete list of Fourth District Boards, Commissions and Committees can be found: <http://bit.ly/2bmutls>.

Residents who are interested in serving must reside in the following cities to be considered: Chino, Chino Hills, Ontario, Upland and Montclair. Anyone with questions about a commission is encouraged to call Supervisor Hagman’s office at 909-387-4866 and ask for Katherine Kolcheva or send an email to Katherine.Kolcheva@bos.sbcounty.gov.

Supervisor Curt Hagman has represented the Fourth Supervisorial District since December 2014. Prior to his election as County Supervisor, Curt Hagman served as a State Assemblyman for three terms. He is married to Grace and has two children, Jonathan and Elizabeth. In addition to his public service, Curt is also a small business owner and a member of the California State Military Reserve.
