Rutherford Seeks Applicants for Equal Opportunity Commission

SAN BERNARDINO—San Bernardino County Second District Supervisor Janice Rutherford is accepting applications from Second District constituents who would like to serve on the San Bernardino County Equal Opportunity Commission (EOC).

“The EOC plays an important role in ensuring the County’s hiring practices provide for equal opportunity for all job applicants,” Rutherford said. “I encourage any of my constituents interested in employment fairness to submit an application.”

Originally formed by ordinance in 1984, the EOC is made up of 11 members, including two members appointed by each Supervisor and one at-large member.

While not required, knowledge of equal employment opportunity principles and personell administration are desired qualities for applicants. EOC members serve four year terms and are compensated $100 per meeting.

Second District residents can apply for the position on the Clerk of the Board website at <http://cms.sbcounty.gov/cob/Forms/BCCApplication.aspx>. Potential applicants can also contact the Second District office at (909) 387-4833 to request an written application form.
