Crews Knockdown Upland Commercial Fire

Date/Time: December 5, 2020, 6:40 p.m.
Location: 1000 block of West 9th Street, City of Upland
Incident: Commercial Structure Fire

Summary: San Bernardino County Fire crews were dispatched to a reported commercial structure fire in the 1000 block of West 9th Street in Upland. Crews arrived to find heavy smoke showing from a medium sized commercial occupancy.

Arriving crews initiated a fire attack, coordinating their effort with Truck Crews on the roof performing vertical ventilation. Upon making entry, they found heavy smoke and fire conditions inside the business. Interior crews completed a search of the business for any potential victims and worked to limit the fire's spread. Ultimately the fire knocked down in 30 minutes. The fire's cause is under investigation by San Bernardino County Fire Investigators.

San Bernardino County Fire responded with 3 Engines, a Truck, a Battalion Chief, A Safety Officer and a Fire Investigator. Rancho Cucamonga and Montclair Fire Departments, each assisted with 1 Engine.
