An unidentified male died in an immense and intense fire that destroyed a two-story house in the 29100 block of Lakeview Drive in Cedar Glen on Jan. 26.

Cynthia Bachman, public information officer for county public affairs, said that the San Bernardino County coroner is still investigating the cause of death and identity of the victim who was located in the house.

Both San Bernardino County Fire and Cal Fire responded to the scene. According to an eye witness, Austin Raishbrook of RMG News, the firefighters discovered heavy fire through the roof, with exposures to nearby houses.

Fire department personnel confined the fire to the one house and also dealt with a live power line that fell onto the road in front of the burning building, Raishbrook said.

Due to the discovery of a deceased occupant, the county coroner responded at 2:56 a.m. In addition, Bachman explained, the sheriff's bomb-arson detail was called to the scene and arrived at 4:30 a.m. That team is working together to determine the cause of the fire and of the death of the male victim.

Raishbrook described the fire as being so huge that it could be seen from across Lake Arrowhead.

San Bernardino County Fire Department was unable to provide additional information because its public information officer, Tracey Martinez, was unavailable.
