San Bernardino Crews Rescue Fall Victim from Flood Channel

Date/Time: Thursday, April 2, 2020, 2:15 pm
Location: 2400 Block of North Windsor, San Bernardino
Incident: Fall Victim Rescue

Summary: On April 2nd San Bernardino County Fire crews from Division 2 were dispatched to a reported fall victim in the area of North Windsor & Highland Ave in the City of San Bernardino.

911 callers reported a male down in a flood channel after an approximate 20-foot fall to the bottom of the channel. MS226 & MT224 arrived on-scene, initiated patient care and rescue operations for the adult trauma victim.

While personnel from MS226 completed patient care, MT224 crew set up a ladder operation to hoist the victim from the channel.

Once rescued, the patient was transported by ground ambulance to a local trauma center.
