ARGUMENT AGAINST MEASURE T

When the City of Highland was formed in 1987 voters overwhelmingly voted to reject selecting their city council from single member districts (small sub-areas of the City) like the neighboring City of San Bernardino.

Instead, Highland voters wanted ALL of their city council TO BE SELECTED BY AND ACCOUNTABLE TO EVERYONE IN THE CITY.

In San Bernardino, single-member district elections resulted in a hostile and divided city council resulting in years of toxic politics and infighting – while the city fell apart and crumbled into bankruptcy.

The real questions are:

- Do you want only one member of your city council to care about your neighborhood; or do you want everyone on your city council to care?
- Do you want Highland to become like San Bernardino?

We don't!
