Early voting expands for the 2020 Presidential Primary Election

The San Bernardino County Registrar of Voters will open five additional early voting sites throughout the county next week, making it easier for voters to cast their ballots in the March 3 Presidential Primary Election.

The Registrar of Voters has been accepting votes since Feb. 3 by mail and from voters who come into the Registrar's office. As of Thursday, 73,162 ballots had been cast.

Doors will open Tuesday morning at early voting sites in Apple Valley, Joshua Tree, Lake Arrowhead, Ontario, and Victorville.

The locations and operating hours of each early voting site are:

Eligible citizens who missed the voter registration deadline on Feb. 18 still have an opportunity to exercise their right to vote through the conditional voter registration process.

To qualify, individuals must complete and submit a voter registration application in person at the Registrar of Voters Office or an Early Vote site on or before Election Day, or at a polling place on Election Day. The voter will then be given a provisional ballot to cast. It is recommended that individuals complete the conditional voter registration process before Election Day.

For more information about this election or early voting sites, visit the Registrar of Voters website, SBCountyElections.com, or call (909) 387-8300.
