INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING AN APPLICATION FOR ISSUANCE OF TENTATIVE PARCEL MAP OR TRACT MAP NUMBER

One of the many duties the San Bernardino County Recorder's Office is responsible for is the issuance of Tentative Parcel, Tract and Official Map Numbers referencing properties that are to be subdivided within the county. The tentative number issued shall become an official record upon recordation of the map.

Completion of Application:

1. Applications are to be completed and submitted by a Registered Civil Engineer, Licensed Surveyor or by a representative of the Engineering/Surveying company.
2. Please be specific when selecting the Map Type.
3. The information provided should be legible.
4. Complete the Property Information section and include the legal description of the underlying property. The legal description being provided will be the same description appearing on the preamble of the map. If necessary, please include an additional page for the legal description.
5. Include the legal owner's name in the Owner Information section.
6. The section for Engineer or Surveyor Information must be completed in full, signed and dated.
7. The Payment Options (Non-Refundable) section should be completed by indicating the manner of payment.

Submission:

Applications may be submitted for processing by the following methods:

- Mail to: Recorder-County Clerk, Attn: Map Desk; 222 W. Hospitality Lane, San Bernardino, CA 92415
- In person: It may be dropped off at the main office, Monday through Friday between the hours of 8:00AM to 5:00PM.

PAYMENT OPTIONS (NON-REFUNDABLE)

Payment may be made by check, money order, or cashier's check made payable to "County Recorder". Please check the appropriate box:
