April is Alcohol Awareness Month

This April, we are dedicating time to raise awareness and share resources to help people understand alcohol abuse and substance use disorder.

What is substance use disorder?

Substance use disorder is the term when a person uses substances (typically alcohol or drugs) even though it harms themselves or others. Substance use disorders can range from mild to severe.

Here are some resources to help support you or your loved ones.

- CredibleMind offers resources for topics like Alcohol Use or take a quick assessment like "Is Your Substance Use Harmful?" to help you better understand alcohol misuse
- Learn more about what the symptoms are, how to get treatment, or offer support
- Find a Doctor use this tool to help find a provider to help you

May is Mental Health Awareness Month

This month and every month is a great time to help raise awareness for those living with mental illness, promote mental health practices, and share resources.

Blue Shield of California's Mental Health Resources page hosts a variety of information including:

- Find A Doctor find a provider for support with mental health conditions
- CredibleMind explore support tools, take assessments, and find resources
- Wellvolution access digital apps like Headspace and Headspace Care to help support your mental health
- More information on your plan's covered behavioral health benefits

Join Headspace for quarterly workshops offering expert-back support on mental health topics.
