To be eligible to receive a bonus project, a CoC must demonstrate that it ranks projects based on how they improve system performance as outlined in Section VII.B.1.a of the FY CoC NOFA.

Program participants may only receive up to 24-months of total assistance. For more information about Joint TH and PH-RRH component projects, see Section V.C.3 of the FY 2019 CoC NOFA.

Continuum of Care 2019-Domestic Violence (DV) Bonus, CoC Bonus, and Reallocation Projects Application

If funded, HUD will limit eligible costs as follows, in addition to other limitations found in 24 CFR part 578: (1) leasing of a structure or units, and operating costs to provide transitional housing; (2) short- or medium-term tenant-based rental assistance on behalf of program participants to pay for the rapid rehousing portion of the project; (3) supportive services; (4) HMIS; and (5) project administrative costs. When a program participant is enrolled in a Joint TH and PH-RRH component project, the recipient or subrecipient must be able to provide both components, including the units supported by the transitional housing component and the tenant-based rental assistance and services provided through the PH-RRH component, to all participants. A program participant may choose to receive only the transitional housing unit, or the assistance provided through the PH-RRH component, but the recipient or subrecipient must make both types of assistance available. Additionally, if CoC Program funds are not being requested for both TH and PH-RRH units, the project application must still describe the number of TH and PH-RRH units that will be utilized by the project, if selected for conditional award, and provide details in the project description of how TH and PH-RRH assistance will be provided.

See- https://www.onecpd.info/resources/documents/FinalHMISDataStandards_March2010.pdf.
14. Rapid Re-Housing. Rapid Re-Housing places a priority on moving a family or individual experiencing homelessness into permanent housing as quickly as possible, ideally within 30 days of a client becoming homeless and entering a program.
