

	Don Smith	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Extended his congratulations to Maria Razo and acknowledged Supervisor Gonzales and her work. Don expressed his concerns and frustration with the meeting and the message it is sending to the provider communities. He stated that this body needs a balanced leadership to move forward.
	CaSonya Thomas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Wanted to remind everyone that this election is an open process, so as we go into our next meeting know that the position for Vice-Chair is open for nominations by all members of the board. This is an opportunity for others to hear the call, it does not have to be just between myself and Mr. Smith. CaSonya extended her congratulations on the election of a new chair and to Supervisor Gonzales for her leadership. The County was successful, as was the Housing Authority in their partnership with the Mountain Homeless Coalition, on submitting three HomeKey projects. Two projects were for the city of San Bernardino and the third was for the mountain communities. Leveraging over $9 million of state HomeKey funds. We are now in the documentation phase of the process which will hopefully move us from reserved to warded status. Moving Forward is up and running. Through an executive order we were able to streamline the procurement process and with that we reached out to three of our local non-profits who have been active and have the capacity to take up the charge. Keys and The Chance Project responded and said they would partner with us to help move residents out of Project Roomkey isolation and into other housing plans. CaSonya wanted to acknowledge the fact that the County is collaborating with non-profits, being innovative, and building partnerships with them on various projects throughout the county.
	Tom Hernandez	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tom wanted to put a common misconception to rest, that the Housing Authority is “Quasi County”. The Housing Authority is an independent agency that has its own CEO or COO. It is governed by HUD rules not by local or state government. The Housing Authority of the County of San Bernardino is reference to the region not an agency when it says “of the County of San Bernardino”.
Adjournment	Vice Chair, Maria Razo	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 11:09 a.m.
